

PRODUCE BOXES HANDED OUT TO FEED LOCALS

By The Weekly Staff - June 9, 2020

A free drive-through food distribution was held on May 28 at St. Justin Martyr Church at MM 105 in Key Largo. As locals drove up, volunteers placed USDA produce boxes that contained vegetables and salads into trunks. People also received a gallon of milk and watermelon as well as hot meals courtesy of Mangrove Mike’s Endeavors. The feeding event was a collaboration between Feeding South Florida, Monroe County, SOS Foundation, Ocean Reef Community Foundation and United Way of Collier and the Keys. “We are pleased to be a part of this collaborative effort to help our Keys friends and neighbors in need during this crisis,” said Leah Stockton, UWCK Keys area president.
