ALL CHARITIES
The Heart of Ocean Reef

Dear Ocean Reef Friends and Family,

Welcome to the much anticipated 2024 All Charities Weekend – an occasion that marks the transition from “Imagining the Possibilities” to actualizing them. We extend our heartfelt appreciation for your participation and generosity, as this weekend’s endeavors are poised to work wonders under the auspices of the Ocean Reef Community Foundation.

It is with sincere acknowledgement that we emphasize your support extends beyond the boundaries of entities integral to Ocean Reef’s Unique Way of Life. It reaches far and wide, providing vital funding to numerous commendable charities across Homestead, Florida City, and the Upper Keys. From addressing food security and healthcare to fostering care and supporting educational services, your benevolence touches diverse facets of our communities.

Reflecting on the journey since 2009, when ORCF granted $365,000 to 17 transformative projects, we now stand on the cusp of this weekend having collectively raised over $63 million. Of this, $21 million has been judiciously directed to neighboring communities, positively impacting the lives of thousands. Such remarkable achievements are made possible by the enduring generosity of the Ocean Reef Community.

Our sincere thanks extend not only to the broader Ocean Reef community but also to each donor contributing to the All Charities cause. We commend the dedicated committee members who have tirelessly championed the cause throughout the season. Additionally, we express heartfelt gratitude to the indefatigable All Charities staff, whose grace, humor, and meticulous attention to detail ensure the seamless execution of the noble undertaking.

Within the pages of this catalog, a diverse array of opportunities for bidding awaits your discerning consideration – ranging from exclusive trips to fine dining experiences to unique items and events. While the overarching objective is to transform possibilities into wonders for the beneficiaries of All Charities, we equally aspire to bestow upon the winning bidders extraordinary and unforgettable moments.

Your steadfast support transforms the realm of possibilities into tangible realities, enriching both the realm of possibilities and imagination upon those in need. As you envision the possibilities, bid early and often, and may your compassionate journey bring resounding success with open hearts.

With deepest appreciation,

STUDIO 54 IN 2024, AN ALL CHARITIES SEASON KICK-OFF PARTY

Wednesday, December 4, 2024

RAISE THE PADDLE

200 spots available, $750 per person

It may be 2024, but come November, we're gonna get down and party like it's Studio 54! "Back in the day," to be admitted to the iconic Studio 54 was a status symbol, and this first event of the 2024-2025 All Charities season will symbolize the status of the season as

"Officially Open." But you won't need to go to the extremes of the 1970s and that wildest club off-Broadway – everyone here will be a VIP. While most of the disco club's headlines featured celebrities, the majority of its guests were simply people who wanted to dance; to paraphrase regular Andy Warhol, while "it was a dictatorship at the door," it was "a democracy on the dance floor." Here, every guest will feel glamorous grooving to the hottest 70s hits in this theatrical over-the-top venue, no sneaking in required!

Dress to impress, perhaps emulating a trend-setting celebrity from the era, or dig in your closets for treasures from beloved days gone by! For the women, think glitter, bold and colorful prints, flowing fabrics. Or polyester jumpsuits, chiffon dresses with plunging necklines, flowing tops with outrageous patterns, bell bottoms, metallic wrap dresses. Halter tops. And for the guys: flared pants, high-rise waistcoats, three-piece suits, boldly patterned neckties, and anything with a pointy lapel. Don't forget accessories: aviator glasses, newsboy caps, fedoras, and false moustaches. The most important thing will be to express yourself! Be bold – just like the crowd at the real Studio 54! The music might be a bit loud, so you should be prepared to let your outfit do all the talking. Then, when you arrive, you'll check in with a bouncer, only being allowed to walk through the doors when your name is discovered on the "VIP" list, right beside names like Diana Ross, Elton John, Cher, John Lennon, Liza Minelli, Freddy Mercury, John Travolta, Gilda Radnor, Tina Turner! Celebrate good times – come on! It'll be THE hip place to be.

Immortality - Be a Character in Mike Smith's Book

What would you bid for immortality? Here is your chance... let Ocean Reef's own renowned novelist, Michael Kenneth Smith, name one of the characters in his soon-to-be-released book after YOU. The author of six books of historical fiction including the international Amazon bestseller The Postwoman (based on the true story of WWII Resistance fighter, André De Jongh), Mike trained as a mechanical engineer, then turned to writing after building—and selling—a successful auto parts business. Storytelling is his lifelong passion, and these days, he is putting the finishing touches on the follow-up to his critically acclaimed All is Fair, the tale of a World War II fighter pilot, but THIS time, he has graciously agreed to name a character after the winning bidder (Member Steve Woodsum was a character in one of Mike's recent books and calls this a priceless opportunity)! And Mike has suggested that the higher the bid...the more significant the character. Upon its release, your friends at All Charities will arrange for you to receive 25 copies signed by the author himself.

Four Teams of Four (16 people)/ $1,000 per person

Get ready for a culinary adventure like no other at our Iron Chef All Charities event! Imagine the excitement as four teams, each with four enthusiastic cooks, dive into a whirlwind of culinary creativity. Your mission? To conjure up the most tantalizing appetizer and entrée you can, using a diverse array of ingredients, all before time runs out. Picture the scene: four teams, buzzing with energy, each presenting gastronomic masterpieces to our esteemed judges, including Cooking School Chef Betania and Chef Philippe, along with two other culinary experts. The prize? The prestigious Iron Chefs title and the honor of having your winning recipe prepared and served by the Cooking School Culinary Team at the 2024 Equity Welcome Back Gathering Party. The challenge unfolds in stages. First, be inspired by a vibrant display of proteins, vegetables, grains, pastas, seasonings, and spices at the ORC Cooking School. With only 20 minutes for planning, design a menu incorporating at least one protein, two vegetables, one grain, and a sauce. What follows is a swift 10-minute dash to select ingredients. Then, the real excitement begins. You'll have 1½ hours to transform ideas into reality, preparing, cooking, and presenting dishes to the judges. The criteria? Presentation, creativity, taste, complexity, and organization. As the judges deliberate, relax over a light meal paired with wine. Announcement of the winning team will follow, to be celebrated with a trophy and individual medals. Join us for an unforgettable experience where flavor, innovation, and passion come together in a spectacular culinary battle!

Dinner at "Kentucky Eagle's Nest" Right Here on Sunrise Cay Saturday, April 27, 2024

30 people at $2,000 per person

"Not all chefs have 'a specialty.' Some of us just like to cook good food well," says Chef Aaron Brooks. Food and wine are constantly on his mind, even when he's running a marathon or playing a round of golf. Having cooked around the world with Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts since 2001, the Australian native has journeyed through kitchens from Vancouver to Boston, orbiting cultures and cuisines from pan-Asian to New England, and since launching EDGE, Steak and Bar in 2011, has immersed himself in the Miami culinary scene and its Latin culture. Over the years, he has earned himself and the restaurant recognitions, including as one of Miami's "Hot Shot Chefs," a "Man of Meat," and one of the "Hottest Places to Eat and Drink in Miami." Staying true to his motto "food has to be seasonal and relevant to where you are," Chef Brooks likes to prepare menus that are healthy and approachable, so that diners feel satisfied without being overwhelmed. With that in mind, on April 27, settle in for a relaxed evening and a great meal at Bill Butler's lovely home at 10 Sunrise Cay. Chef Brooks will be cooking enough good food well to serve a hungry crowd of 30; if you're lucky enough to get on that list, prepare to be amazed and delighted by how good a meal can be.

The Devil's Throat

Rupert has brought his artist's eye to South America's Iguazú (meaning "big water") Falls, the largest waterfall system in the world. Legend has it that a deity planned to marry a beautiful woman who fled with her mortal lover in a canoe. In a rage, the deity sliced the river, creating the waterfalls and condemning the lovers to an eternal fall. The most dramatic drop is the long and narrow chasm called the Devil's Throat, near the border between Brazil, Argentina, and Paraguay, where there is a wooden bridge from which one can look straight down into it. Abstract acrylic, 48 x 48 inches on stretched canvas.

The Magnificent Millennium Horizontal, Act III

The Wine Cellar Insider said, "With 2000 Bordeaux wine, part of what made the vintage great is that quality wines were produced in every Bordeaux appellation and in all price categories. That level of consistency in 2000 Bordeaux wine is one of the key hallmarks to a great Bordeaux wine vintage. The wines are deep, ripe, rich, concentrated, flamboyant and expressive." This lot offers two bottles each of the eight different châteaux (16 bottles total).

different châteaux (16 bottles total).

Ch. Lynch Bages – "The still dense purple-colored 2000 reveals a blossoming bouquet of blackberries, cassis, graphite and pen ink. Full-bodied with velvety tannins that have resolved themselves beautifully over the years." Robert Parker (97 pts).

Ch. Leoville Barton – "Take textbook St.-Julien warmed fig, blueberry compote and blackberry reduction notes along with ample graphite, bramble and tobacco flavors, then dial it up a notch. This has terrific energy to offset the admirable depth and length." Wine Spectator (96 pts).

Ch. Montrose – "The 2000 Montrose is a straight-up gorgeous bottle of wine that, while still young, is offering up tons of pleasure. Classic Saint Estèphe notes of black currants, damp earth, tobacco leaf, cedar, and hints of truffle all emerge from this dense, concentrated, powerful red with sweet tannins, full body, impeccable balance, and a great, great finish." Jeb Dunnock (96 pts).

Ch. Pavie Decesse – "Monumental richness, sensational sweet tannin, a skyscraper-like midpalate, and a 45+-second finish result in an extraordinary wine" Robert Parker (96 pts).

Ch. Grand Puy Lacoste – "Quintessential Pauillac. Blackberry, wild hedgerow, black tea and cloves appear first, followed later by subtle minty aromas, all well-defined, intense and classic in style.” Vinous (94 pts)

Ch. Rausan Segla – “It has a gorgeous bouquet, a little backward at first but then opening with black cherries, blueberry jam and hints of Provençal herbs.” Vinous (94 pts).

Ch. Latour a Pomerol – “The management, then and now, is with the Moueix family who make the most of the fabulous vineyard. The 2000 is a hugely opulent, velvet textured wine, but it retains hints of the elegance that is the hallmark of this property.” Wine Enthusiast (93 pts).

Château Beychevelle – “The nose offers tobacco, blackberry, wet earth, cedar chest and cassis. On the palate, the wine is firm, fresh and traditional.” Wine Cellar Insider (90 pts).

2003 Bordeaux Horizontal Redux

Record heat in the summer of 2003 produced a vintage of good but mixed reputation. Some châteaux clearly outpaced their competition. Presented here are several ‘stars of the vintage.’ How will you rate these competitors? Three bottles each of five different châteaux (15 bottles).

Ch. Ducru Beaucaillou – “Full bodied with masses of big, velvety tannins and a finish that lasts for minutes. A blockbuster.” Wine Spectator (98 pts and No. 28 on the Top 100).

Ch. Leoville Barton – “Intense blackberry and cherry, with hints of currant. Toasted oak and sweet tobacco too. Full-bodied, with masses of tannins yet incredibly long and seductive.” Wine Spectator (98 pts); ranked No. 3 of Top 100 of 2006.

Ch. Pichon Baron – In 2018, Jeb Dunnuck noted, “...offers a ripe, sexy bouquet of black currants, spice-box, licorice, and tobacco leaf. It is ripe and powerful on the palate with sweet tannins, some evolution in its fruit, still present sweet tannins, and a great finish.” Wine Spectator (95 pts).

Ch. Pichon Lalande – “A glorious bouquet of cedarwood, jammy black currants, cherries, licorice and truffle is followed by a dense, opulently textured, full-bodied wine with terrific purity and freshness as well as deep, velvety textured tannins.” Robert Parker (95 pts).
