Dear Ocean Reef Friends and Family,

Welcome to the 2026 All Charities Weekend catalog - a celebration of the glamour of giving and the fun that comes with it.

All Charities is the primary fundraising vehicle for the Ocean Reef Community Foundation. Since 1999, All Charities has brought in over $80 million. Its success has provided substantial means to assist local charity partners on and off the Reef in support of ORCF's mission, to foster a culture of giving that amplifies our collective strength, inspiring generations of Members to make Ocean Reef and our surrounding communities a better place.

Bid on your own or with friends knowing that your generosity helps sustain the valued nonprofits here on the Reef: The Medical Center, Cultural Center, Academy, Art League, ORCAT, Conservation Association, and Chapel and Fellowship Center. These organizations help enable our "unique way of life." Beyond the gates, your support benefits the youth, families, and health of our neighboring communities in Key Largo, Homestead, and Florida City.

An amazing team pulls all this together for your enjoyment. Our heartfelt thanks to the auction committees and the indefatigable office staff for their months of work behind the scenes. Our Preferred Partners, through their direct financial contributions and auction item donations, ensure that the monies raised at the Silent and Live Auctions this weekend free up ORCF to give 100 percent of the donations made by Club members to non-profits. Finally, we thank you for being part of it all.

Ocean Reef has meant so much to the Shields Family; we celebrated our 44th holiday season this year! The friendship, love, and support from this community is incredible, and we feel so fortunate to be a part of this special place. Let's keep doing great things together.

With our deepest appreciation,

Meg and Pat Shields
Event Co-Chairs, 2026 All Charities Weekend

African Bush Camps: The Home of the Authentic African Safari Experience

Six Nights | Four Guests

This is luxury in the wild. African Bush Camps and Haute Explore will work closely with the winning bidders to curate a once-in-a-lifetime safari, selecting two camps (three nights at each) from African Bush Camps' portfolio of 17 exceptional properties across Botswana, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. Founded in 2006 by renowned Zimbabwean guide Beks Ndlovu, African Bush Camps was created to share Africa's authentic beauty while conserving wildlife and empowering local communities. Through thoughtfully designed safari experiences and its longstanding nonprofit arm, the African Bush Camps Foundation, the organization prioritizes inclusive, regenerative tourism - supporting education, conservation, and community partnerships in every region where it operates. Your options span some of Africa's most extraordinary settings. In Zimbabwe, the chic Bumi Hills Safari Lodge overlooks shimmering Lake Kariba, offering sweeping views, an infinity pool, wellness spa, gym, and exceptional game viewing near Matusadona National Park. Ten luxurious suites and the private Baobab Villa provide refined comfort, personalized service, and unforgettable wildlife encounters by land and water. In Botswana, Atzaró Okavango Camp sits in the heart of the ecologically rich Okavango Delta. Accessible only by helicopter and powered entirely by solar energy, this exclusive camp blends sustainability with sophistication. Twelve elegant suites and villas feature plunge pools, expansive living spaces, and immersive safari activities including mokoro excursions, walking safaris, and night drives. In Zambia, Lolebezi in Lower Zambezi National Park offers riverside indulgence amid thriving elephant herds, leopards and a hotbed of wildlife diversity. Canoeing, boating, fishing, game drives, and walking safaris are complemented by beautifully appointed suites with plunge pools, spa amenities, and sweeping Zambezi views. These are just three of your 17 choices - extraordinary decisions await.

Dates to be mutually agreed. International airfare and gratuities not included.

Steamboat Bay Fishing Club: Your Private Passage into Southeast Alaska

Four Nights | Five Days | Eight Guests
August 23 - 27, 2026

Your adventure begins in Ketchikan, a vibrant coastal town reached by a short flight from Seattle. After a hosted overnight with greeting, transfers, and breakfast, you'll board a scenic float-plane flight that lifts you above Southeast Alaska's waterways toward Noyes Island, just off the rugged coast of Prince of Wales Island. Waiting at the water's edge is The Residence at Steamboat Bay Fishing Club, a private retreat set within the Tongass National Forest region. For three days, your group of eight will head out with personal guides in search of king and silver salmon, halibut, and lingcod. Out on the water, whales surface in the distance, majestic bald eagles sweep the tree-tops, and each outing brings a sense of discovery. Back on land, the Club's world-class team welcomes you with warm hospitality and chef-prepared meals inspired by the flavors of the region. Evenings bring everyone together around the table to share the stories of the day, a tradition that makes Steamboat Bay unforgettable. This extraordinary experience is scheduled for August 23-27, 2026. Guests will overnight in Ketchikan on August 23, fly to Steamboat Bay on August 24, and return to Ketchikan on August 27. Dates may be flexible based on availability. Fishing licenses and gratuities for fishing guides and staff totaling approximately $13K are also included.

Airfare is not included unless otherwise noted.

Burgundy House by Ethan Dupree: Burgundy at Its Finest

Five Nights | Six People

Burgundy House is the premier private guest retreat and curated wine experience in France's Burgundy region. A movable feast of sensation and flavor, it blends the boundaries between small group travel and experiential art. Formerly a small wine domaine located in the village of Meursault, the property has been lovingly restored into a private accommodation that marries old world elegance with modern luxury and style. Upon entering the arched wooden double doors into the sunlight and warmth of the two inner courtyards, you will find 18th and 19th century stone buildings encircling three master suites that complement the estate's lounges, library, chef's atelier, terraces, elegant bars, and captivating vignettes. Nestled into the majestic vineyards of the Burgundian Gold Coast, Burgundy House feels like your own private village to be shared amongst only you and your closest friends as you embark on the French adventure of a lifetime. Created by Ethan Dupree, this is both a private accommodation and elegantly paired experience. Offered in limited release to groups of close friends and family, the property welcomes only six guests per outing. Over the course of five days and five nights, the Burgundy House experience unfolds through this fairytale region of France, including the wine appellations of the Côte de Nuits, Côte de Beaune, Hautes Côtes, and Côte Chalonnaise, revealing moments of magic. From a sumptuous candle-lit supper in the 15th century Burgundy wine cellar, to vineyard-side toasts of Montrachet, Corton-Charlemagne and Richebourg, each note of this composition will leave an indelible mark on your palate and heart. Burgundy House welcomes you and your private group on this intimate outing through the breathtaking villages, winding back roads, and sprawling vineyards of Burgundy, France. Burgundy House awaits....

Dates to be mutually agreed. Includes all beverages and meals plus private transportation for the full complement of guests as one group to/from the following airports: Paris, Geneva, Lyon, or Dijon (DIJ, a private airport only 30 minutes from the property). Airfare not included.

An Evening with Matteo Bocelli in Concert

Wednesday, December 9, 2026
200 people | $2,000 per person

When your father is the legendary tenor Andrea Bocelli, whose voice has wowed the world for over three decades, stepping into the spotlight isn't just a career move, it's a birthright, a burden, and a generational breakthrough. For 28-year-old Matteo Bocelli, that means evolving from heir to innovator; in the process he has grown into an artist who now confidently shares the romance of Italy with the heart of a poet and the reach of a global pop star. The pressure to live up to his father's extraordinary reputation has shaped his journey, fueling his determination to prove his own extraordinary artistry. "Being a Bocelli is both a privilege and a responsibility," he says. "I've never wanted to run from my father's incredible legacy, but I do want people to hear my voice, my emotions, and my version of love." Matteo, who last performed at Ocean Reef in 2018, long before he achieved global recognition, will return as a star in his own right to perform a truly magical and intimate concert – an evening of Purely Pleasure in every sense. Following a candlelit wine dinner, take your seat and prepare yourself to be entranced by the magnificent music of this delightful performer and gracious gentleman who has made an art of combining classical tradition with modern storytelling. Matteo's philosophy is that happiness is fleeting but found in small, beautiful moments; in the wake of his "Falling in Love" world tour, he is looking forward to celebrating such beautiful moments here once again. ## What The Duck?

Wednesday, November 18, 2026
80 people | $1,500 per person

Come November, the What the Duck?! festive dinner will mark the start of the season with a spirited Chinese flair. Featuring renowned Chef Scott Drewno and once again emceed by the always-entertaining Jim Loomis, the evening will open Ocean Reef's season with bold flavors, delicious wines, and lively entertainment. Guests will enjoy a sumptuous, multi-course, Asian-inspired menu starring America's Tastiest Duck from Joe Jurgielewicz & Son.

A native of New York's Finger Lakes wine region, Drewno has had an amazing journey through the culinary world, from his humble beginnings on the fry station at Applebee's to working with Wolfgang Puck in Las Vegas. He has developed a passion for Asian cuisine and has hot takes on buffalo wings as well as the pros and cons of sous vide cooking. An award-winning chef, his resumé has taken him from Wolfgang Puck's Chinois in Las Vegas to Spago and New York's Vong and Ruby Foo's. In 2007, he was tapped by Puck to be the Executive Chef at The Source in Washington, D.C., earning the RAMMY Award for Chef of the Year in 2010. In 2017, he co-founded The Fried Rice Collective, a restaurant and hospitality group, with fellow James Beard Award nominated chef Danny Lee. Together, they launched CHIKO, a Chinese-Korean fine-casual concept, the Korean pub Anju, the breakfast concept I Egg You, and a full-service catering company called District Catering. Each year, Drewno hosts fundraising events for DCFBC and the George Washington University Hospital Mobile Mammography Unit, two causes he holds near and dear to his heart, and his dedication to bold flavors and innovative dining continues to shape the D.C. food scene, earning him recognition from the Michelin Guide and national food critics. You can expect to eat well, drink well, and laugh lots! (Quack quack quack!!!)

Luxury Mediterranean Voyage & Monaco Grand Prix Rooftop Experience

10-Day Silversea Cruise | Two Veranda Suites
Four Guests | VIP Monaco Grand Prix
May 29-June 9, 2026

Set sail aboard Silver Ray, one of Silversea's newest all-suite luxury ships, on an extraordinary Mediterranean journey that blends timeless destinations with one of the world's most glamorous sporting events. This exceptional experience for four guests spans four countries and eight refined ports, traveling between Rome and Barcelona while immersing you in Silversea's hallmark elegance, award-winning cuisine, and personalized butler service. Your accommodations include two classic Veranda Suites, ideally located at the bow and aft of the ship. Each suite features a queen-sized bed, marble bathroom, and a private teak veranda offering sweeping sea views—your personal sanctuary after days spent exploring historic cities, coastal villages, and iconic landscapes. Highlights of the voyage include the Italian coast, an overnight in Tuscany, the pastel beauty of Portofino, the wild elegance of Corsica, and the electric energy of Monte Carlo. This remarkable cruise culminates with exclusive access to one of the most coveted events in the world: the Monaco Formula One Grand Prix.

Monaco Grand Prix – Formula Silversea Rooftop Experience

On Saturday and Sunday, June 6–7, 2026, enjoy the Monaco Grand Prix from Silversea's private rooftop terrace at the Miramar Hotel, reserved exclusively for Silversea guests. Perfectly positioned between the tunnel exit chicane and Tabac corner, the terrace offers sweeping views over Port Hercule and the legendary street circuit. Both days include escorted walks to the venue, buffet breakfast, finger-food lunch, afternoon coffee and tea, post-race aperitifs, live musical entertainment, and an open bar featuring Champagne, wines, cocktails, and non-alcoholic beverages. From practice and qualifying sessions to the Grand Prix itself, experience the sights, sounds, and prestige of Formula One in an intimate, elevated setting.

Airfare not included. Please note that due to the set-up of the race in Monaco the Grand Prix experience requires walking to the hotel venue and back to the ship just under a mile each way. The historic hotel does not have an elevator.

Best of Portugal: Lisbon & Porto

Seven Nights | Six People

Here's an opportunity for six of you to embrace the excitement of exploring Portugal, historically seen as the "center of the world" due to its pivotal role in the Age of Discovery, linking Europe with Africa, Asia, and the Americas, a gateway to global trade and exploration. You'll spend three nights in Lisbon and four in Porto, luxuriating in five-star hotels in the center of each city (three double rooms/six guests, daily breakfast included), treated to private transportation and guides for all the tours throughout your trip, and for your transfer from one city to the other. On your Lisbon leg, you'll spend one day visiting Sintra and Cascais plus Quinta da Regaleira, a 16th century manor house, as well as an evening taking in a traditional Fado dinner and show (a musical genre and cultural wonder that originated in Lisbon more than two centuries ago). When you travel between Porto and Lisbon, you'll be enchanted by your stops in the waterside city of Aveiro and the charming medieval town of Obidos. Just across the Douro River from Porto, your privately guided half-day walking tour of Vila Nova de Gaia (the hub of the Port wine industry), will include a tasting featuring that rich, sweet, fortified wine for which the region is world-famous, while another day will be dedicated to a trip upriver to view the Douro Valley itself, stopping for lunch and at two wineries for tastings. You'll love your day visiting Braga and Guimaraes, two must-see cities in the country's north, and you'll always remember your dinner with paired wines at Porto's renowned 2 Michelin star Antiquvm. Saúde!

Your Own Home in Florence, Italy

November 1-8, 2026 | Up to Six Guests

You'll have a week to call this luxury apartment – in an elevator-equipped building located in the heart of Florence, just a few minutes' walk from the Duomo and the churches of Santa Croce and Sant' Ambrogio – your own, a true, full immersion experience! In the common areas you'll find a magnificent Renaissance-style dining room, a fully equipped brand-new kitchen, and a spacious living room with beautiful frescoes and rare mosaic-style Venetian floors, plus numerous historic details from the late 17th and 18th centuries. As you learn its stories you'll find it a feast for the eyes! And there are three elegantly decorated double bedrooms (two with en suite bathrooms with showers; the third with a dedicated bathroom, also with a shower), as well as an impressive centuries-old wisteria-covered fully furnished exclusive terrace, a welcome escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday Florentine life. Freshly renovated in 2025, including the historic 14th century archway and staircase restored to their original color and design (a local marble artisan designed, cut, and delicately hand-placed each corridor floor tile), and decorated to pay homage to its rich history, the apartment is furnished with the luxuries and comforts of today: Wi-Fi, air conditioning, and heating, as well as beautiful period pieces throughout, plus three decorative fireplaces with colorful and rare marble. The lively neighborhood is easy to get around on foot and full of surprises, including many beautiful shops and wonderful restaurants, and there is a garage nearby where you can pay to park. When you depart, you will remember Casa Antinori fondly forever.

Accommodations only. Airfare not included.

Central American "Safari," Three Coppola Hideaways in Guatemala and Belize

Ten Nights | One Couple

Each of these extraordinary hideaways is part of a collection personally created by filmmaker Francis Ford Coppola, who acquired every property after visiting and falling in love with it, envisioning them as "places to do all the best things - to write, to be in love, to have fun with the kids," and to fully immerse oneself in the romance of place.

Central America encompasses a diverse range of geography and climates, from tropical rainforests and lowlands to coastal plains; it is the vector that connects North America and South America, bordered by the Pacific Ocean on the west and the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean Sea on the east. For this reason, it boasts stunning biodiversity, a rich indigenous history, spectacular geography, and world-class snorkeling – offering a multitude of diverse experiences from adventure travel to cultural immersion. Thus, here is a remarkable and relaxing cultural "safari" for two of you. To begin, welcome to Guatemala's La Lancha ("Little Boat"), high above the shores of El Remate's Lago Petén Itzá. Here guests arrive by boat, call staff on shellphones, and wake to rainforest birdsong. Your two nights at this peaceful lakeside haven, with its restaurant, shared lounge, bar, garden, and year-round outdoor pool, will help you settle into "vacation mode," and for the first of your safari adventures, you'll take in a full day tour of the legendary Maya ruin of Tikal. Although you won't want to leave, you'll be shifting from luxury to luxury, as you spend your next four nights at Blancaneaux Lodge, a 20-room luxury resort tucked away in a pocket of Belize's Maya Mountains, where waterfalls tumble into turquoise pools above the jungle. In the midst of this rainforest wonderland, your safari will take the form of a memorable horseback ride to Big Rock Falls. And finally, after your ground transfer that includes a ziplining adventure, settle in for four nights of beachfront luxury at Belize's Turtle Inn, an easy stroll from picturesque Placencia. You'll find the Inn a bucolic retreat with a sprinkling of glamour, featuring brightly colored hammocks slung between slanted palm trees, Balinese-style beach huts, and the sun-sparkled waters of the Caribbean, and to ensure you make the most of your time in this safari paradise, a full day of snorkeling is included. Includes daily breakfasts, plus ground transfers between hideaways and to Belize International Airport.

Gratuities and airfare not included.

Iconic Wines Dinner

Hosted by Chris and Dana Chiapparelli
For Party of Eight

Ocean Reef Members Chris and Dana Chiapparelli are offering a priceless evening experience of the rarest wines and gourmet dining. After attending the 2025 version, Mike Jones raved, "Chris Chiapparelli is a both a gourmet chef and a sommelier. This impressive set of credentials was on display at our recent Burgundy wine and food extravaganza. The pairings of delectable foods with extraordinary wines is on my short list for best ever experiences. Domaine de la Romanée Conti wines are impossible to get. Drinking these wines is a rare experience. Chris shared the best of his cellar and gave us excellent tasting insights. What a night!" Chris worked his way up through the industry from his first job washing dishes at Chiapparelli's, his family's namesake Baltimore restaurant, from which his passion led to hospitality training at Cornell. Before taking over the family's commercial real estate portfolio, Chris was a chef stagiaire at New York's Restaurant Daniel in NYC, eventually moving to the front of house to serve as sommelier and beverage director at several Manhattan Michelin-starred restaurants, including Le Bernardin and Café des Artistes. During this priceless once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, eight guests will taste a variety of the most iconic and highly coveted wines in the world. The wine selection will be commensurate with the winning bid, so bid with confidence! The bespoke menu will be designed to pair with the wines and the winner's tastes. But to get a small sense of the style, after the last dinner none of the participants could look at caviar again for months!

Date to be mutually agreed. Blackout dates may apply.

Bringing the Mount Veeder Wine Region to The Reef Presented by Mount Veeder Magic Vineyards and Friends

Thursday, April 9, 2026

24 people | $3,000 per person

We move mountains for you. Karen and Frank McKee will host you in their breathtaking home at Ocean Reef, creating the setting for an intimate, first-ever Mount Veeder winemaker dinner. Karen Crouse, owner of Mount Veeder Magic Vineyards, a cherished member of the Ocean Reef community and one of All Charities' newest Preferred Partners, will pour her small-lot Cabernet Sauvignon, crafted from 45-year-old hillside vines and rarely poured outside her home. Paul Woolls, Co-Founder of Progeny Winery, will share a curated lineup of Rhône-style selections. Progeny's winemaking philosophy centers on extended aging, resulting in wines of power, balance, and elegance. With Mount Veeder producing just over one percent of Napa Valley's overall production, these selections are exceptionally rare, some drawn directly from the vintners' private cellars and unavailable to the public. This Napa Valley-inspired evening, shaped by the personal touch of Karen Crouse, will blend gracious hospitality with a full-sensory epicurean experience. Each course will be precisely paired with each pour to highlight Mount Veeder's distinctive terroir and the character it gives these wines. Please join us for an evening of Mount Veeder wines, poured by the vintners who crafted them with passion.

BARENAKED LADIES

JosephPalooza! A Backyard Concert at the Josephs' Home

Tuesday, February 24, 2026 | 130 people

$1,500 per person

Amy and George Joseph are throwing the kind of backyard party Ocean Reef will be talking about for a long time. Set at their beautiful home overlooking Card Sound, the evening kicks off with cocktails, festival food, and a front-row seat to a private concert by Barenaked Ladies - yes, THOSE Barenaked Ladies. With a 35-year career and a songbook everyone knows by heart, this iconic band brings sharp wit, tight harmonies, and nonstop feel-good energy. Expect sing-along moments from "One Week" to "If I Had $1,000,000," plus classics like "Brian Wilson" and "It's All Been Done" - the kind of songs that take you back. If you don't find yourself smiling - or singing - you're doing it wrong. As the sun sets, the water glows, and the music rolls across Card Sound, the vibe is relaxed, happy, and undeniably fun. A great band, a beautiful setting, and a backyard full of the right people. Add good food, cold drinks, and zero expectations beyond having a blast, and suddenly you're in the middle of a perfect All Charities night. Come on over and rock and roll with us!

Iron Chef All Charities 2026

Monday, April 20

Four Teams of Four People

$1,250 per person

Get ready for a culinary adventure – the third annual Iron Chef All Charities event! The excitement builds from the first moments as four teams, each with four enthusiastic cooks, dive into a whirlwind of culinary creativity. Your mission? To conjure up the most tantalizing appetizer and entrée you can, using a diverse array of ingredients, all before time runs out. Picture the scene: four teams, buzzing with energy, each presenting gastronomic masterpieces to a panel of four esteemed judges with Ocean Reef culinary and directorial credentials. The prize? The prestigious Iron Chefs title and the honor of having your winning recipe prepared and served by the Reef's Culinary Team at the 2026 Equity Welcome Back Gathering Party. The challenge unfolds in stages. First, be inspired by a vibrant display of proteins, vegetables, grains, pastas, seasonings, and spices at the ORC Cooking School. With only 20 minutes for planning, design a menu incorporating at least one protein, two vegetables, one grain, and a sauce. What follows is a swift 10-minute dash to select ingredients. Then, the real excitement begins. You'll have 1½ hours to transform ideas into reality, preparing, cooking, and presenting dishes to the panel. The criteria? Presentation, creativity, taste, complexity, and organization. As the judges deliberate, relax over a light meal paired with wine. Announcement of the winning team will follow, to be celebrated with a trophy and individual medals. You won't want to miss being a part of this unforgettable experience where flavor, innovation, and passion come together in a spectacular culinary battle!

Argentina Cast & Blast for Two Hunter Anglers

Four Nights | Five Days

Trade the ordinary for a true South American "cast & blast" in Argentina's wild Entre Ríos region—where limitless dove flights meet hard-charging golden dorado in the same day. The winning pair of two hunters/anglers is headed to Los Laureles Lodge, a large working ranch in Entre Ríos, 50 miles north of Paraná City, for five days/four nights of action with one-on-one guiding - built for those who want volume in the field and tight lines on the water. Expect classic Argentine hospitality, comfortable lodge living, and days that can start with high-volume dove shooting and pivot seamlessly into dorado fishing on river systems famous for explosive takes, aerial acrobatics, and serious pulling power. Includes eight hunts total for two hunters over the course of the trip; double occupancy accommodations, meals, and lodge beverages; drinks in the field. Your arrival/departure point: Santa Fe or Paraná, Argentina.

Dates in September through December 2026 to be mutually agreed. Does not include hunting licenses ($200 each), fishing licenses ($50 each), optional gun rental ($85), gun permit if bringing your own gun ($250/piece), shells ($18/box), domestic ground transfers in Buenos Aires, or international airfare (unless otherwise specified).

Foursome Golf and Lunch at The Bear's Club in Jupiter

How about a round of golf for four, with lunch included, at one of the most prestigious courses in the world? Jack Nicklaus dreamed of designing a first-rate golf club in his adopted home of South Florida. The dream became a reality in 1999 in the form of the private and prestigious Bear's Club; no expense in mind or motion was spared to create a seminal golf experience. In Jupiter, a mile from the Atlantic, Nicklaus expertly transformed the native environment with his exacting standards: an 18-hole championship course with a gently rolling 7,164-yard layout that exudes "Lowcountry" as it moves through rich native vegetation, old oaks, pines, cypress trees, and wetlands. The 354 bunkers are strategically placed, and the collection of medium-to-large undulating greens demands precision. You'll find a memorable collection of par-5's, anchored by the gorgeous home hole, with its long pear-shaped green tucked into the elbow of a lake, leaving a generous bailout area to the right. Just beyond the water that guards the green sits the impressive stone facade of the grand Tuscan-style clubhouse where you'll enjoy your lunch.

Does not include transportation or gratuities; booking must be made at least a month in advance.

Go Big or Go Home

The Lindgren-Pitman S2 -1200 Electric Reel is one of the best electric reels on the market, a high performance reel way ahead of the competition, and versatile enough for almost every fishing situation. From dredging to kite fishing, from tuna to swordfish, the S2 -1200 is ready for the job. It features a high-powered 12-volt direct current electric motor that is fully variable from 50 to 400 feet per minute while maintaining 110+ lbs. of pull at all speeds. The cantilever spool design allows for a completely sealed drive system, enabling long, dependable, maintenance-free use, and the surface is sealed with an anodizing process to prevent corrosion. Matched with an RJ Boyal Heavy Duty Rod makes this the premier deep-drop swordfish rig. And better yet, it comes spooled and ready to rig! Game on!

Art & Antiques

Mediterranean Beauty by Alice Williams

Alice Williams paints, laughs, gardens, and lives with an ease and awakened wonder that infuse the very fibers of her canvas and inspire every stroke of her brush. Her post-Impressionist work transports, comforts, inspires, and reveals, luring one in ever more deeply with its color play and thoughtful composition. Raised in Greenville, SC, Alice's life has followed a circuitous route from city to city and country to country, living in Charlotte, Atlanta, and England, before finally settling in her beloved France. She and her husband divide their time between Atlanta and Provence, and for nearly 25 years, she has been sharing her knowledge and expertise in workshops and classes on both sides of the Atlantic. Her painting, Mediterranean Beauty, painted in Provence, measures 73.5 inches wide by 45.5 high.

The Point

Look at this joy-filled giclee watercolor of The Point! It is the work of Ocean Reef's own Mary Zwirn, who took her first drawing class at age 64 and loves continuing to learn and grow. Unframed, the canvas measures 40 inches wide by 30. With the giclee, you'll also receive a copy of her hardcover book, Mary Zwirn Artwork & Poetry (yes, THAT Mary Zwirn, whose delightful poems often grace the pages of the Ocean Reef Press!)

Ripple Effect, Limited Edition Photograph

"Ripple Effect" is a pigment print on photo rag metallic paper matted in a white frame. The limited-edition photograph, printed by artist Carol Ellis in her Ocean Reef studio, measures 32 x 40 inches. Gentle waves kiss the unspoiled coastline at Greenberg Park at sunset; the luminescence of the print brings out the fluidity of the water and golden reflections present at the end of a Florida Keys day. Carol reflects, "As I sit at the water's edge of Card Sound, small wavelets lap inches from my feet. Relentless ripples have laid to rest red mangrove seed pods amongst the coral rock. A random pod may become lodged in a nook and sprout. That's how islands are made." Thus the "ripple effect" - what happens when a small change alters your life in unexpected ways. Carol's familiarity with the area and knowledge of the local conditions enables her to be in the right place at the right time to get the shot. A South Florida native, she has lived and worked at Ocean Reef for 42 years, and published her first book, "Critters in Our Midst," comprised of musing about nature and illustrated with 200 of her photographs, in 2024. "Ripple Effect" is featured on the cover of the 2025-26 ORCA phonebook.

Wahoo Gyotaku

Gyotaku is the traditional Japanese art of fish painting that originated in the 1800s as a way for fishermen to record trophy catches in the days before photography was practical. It has since evolved into a distinct art form that captures beauty and detail by inking a real fish and pressing paper onto it. Artists use water-based or oil-based inks, Japanese rice paper, and careful hand-rubbing or dabbing to create detailed impressions, often adding color later to enhance realism, blending scientific accuracy with aesthetic expression. This original Lisa Lee Gyotaku of a wahoo caught and harvested in Islamorada is printed with sumi and embellished with acrylic. Framed out to 58 inches wide by 24 high, it comes with a certificate of authenticity.

The Old Brush

The Old Brush is a lovely Renaissance-style piece painted by Gail Noyes, who credits her instructor, Jonathan Sherman of Marblehead, Mass., for teaching her what she needed to know to complete the work. A sculptor as well as a painter, Jonathan studied for six years in Florence, Italy. His works are housed in collections throughout Europe, Australia, and the United States. In its handsome gold frame, it measures 18.25 x 18.25 inches.

The Point: A Place to Pause

In this original acrylic, artist Michelle Reeder has captured our beautiful Ocean Reef's quiet entrance from the sea - a gateway defined by the sensation of arrival, transition, and calm that gently suggests the picturesque haven beyond. Soft light and restrained color emphasize the stillness at the water's edge, inviting reflection and pause. At 36 x 48 inches, the work offers a serene yet substantial presence, evoking both a sense of place and a state of mind.

Afternoon at the Reef

Canadian-born artist Danielle Perry has two passions: art and the sea; she finds it hard to resist the lure of the islands and blue horizons, so her enchantment with Ocean Reef is understandable. A graphic design alumna of Montreal's Dawson College, she works out of her studio in West Palm's Southland Park and as a member of the American Society of Marine Artists, she has been participating in fine art shows throughout southern Florida since 2010. Self-taught, she has an incredible eye for detail, letting the tropics and the ocean animate her canvases, which teem with graceful breezy palms, watery reflections, and bountiful views. Framed in white with gold inlay, Afternoon at the Reef, in oil and acrylic, measures 31 inches wide by 25 high.

Cracker, a Plein Air Landscape

When plein air landscape artist Cathy Burse began painting, she found this quote: "Beauty is powerful. It can inspire greatness, lift a heavy heart and stir a sleeping soul to life." It is a sentiment she strives to bring to each piece she creates. The long-time resident of New Smyrna Beach points out that, "Florida is not just the ocean; we are surrounded by beautiful farmland," and she finds practicing her craft in such surroundings to be magical, and here, it's as if the horses are celebrating that same magic. Oil on stretched gallery-wrapped canvas, 11 inches wide by 13.5 high.

Red Sunset by Alan Maltz

This glorious red sunset set off by a foreground of palm trees was taken by renowned photographer Alan Maltz.

Self-taught, he strives to capture the spirit and essence of Florida with unparalleled passion, allowing his journey to be guided by an intrinsic connection to the light and the natural world; in the process, he uncovers beauty in the everyday and transforms it into enduring art. In a wood frame with a white mat, this beautiful sunset measures 22 inches wide by 28 high.

Pelican

With the longest bills in the bird world, pelicans take in nearly three gallons of water as they scoop up fish. Among the largest flying birds, it's no wonder that sometimes they just need a break. Photographer Linda Carithers, with her passion for the Keys and the creatures that call this place home, has captured this one doing just that. Taken in Key Largo, the photograph is printed on 20 x 30-inch canvas.

Backwater Refuge by Bob Tompkins

Born in Greenville, Mississippi, in 1943, Bob Tompkins pursued a career in art education in Florida and Mississippi while taking lessons from skilled artists Courtney Hunte and Cleve Miller in Florida and spending a couple summers in Madison, Connecticut, to study with the great American painter Robert Brackman. He patterns his style after the Old Masters of the Baroque period, noting, "Few things excite me more than the contrasting of light and dark." An avid hunter, he eventually began to paint wildlife in their native habitats. In 1980 he won the prestigious Mississippi Duck Stamp competition and was again chosen to be on the stamp-print series in 1988. In 1983, he was selected to be on the first Mississippi Wildlife Federation stamp-print series. His Backwater Refuge painting measures 26.5 inches wide x 31.5 high in its frame.

Miss Liberty

This "Miss Liberty" lithograph is the work of artist Charles Levier (1920-2003), a French painter born in Corsica and known for his vibrant works depicting street scenes, landscapes, and women, often with a cinematic, light-filled quality influenced by Hollywood and the "Glorious Thirty" figurative movement. After studying in Paris, he served in World War II, after which he moved to the U.S., where he became a popular artist whose works are held in private collections (like Frank Sinatra's) and sold widely at auction. Framed in dark brown with gold inlay, the lithograph catches a glimpse of the Statue of Liberty through the window and measures 29 inches wide by 36 high.

Night Out by Itzchak Tarkay

This serigraph on woven paper is the work of artist Itzchak Tarkay (1935-2012). Born in Austria, Tarkay and his family spent a year in a concentration camp during WWII, emigrating to Israel shortly after the war. In Israel, the young man studied art and eventually became world renowned for his colorful cafe scenes and confident, bold depictions of women. His expressionistic paintings and prints are reminiscent of Matisse and Toulouse-Lautrec. Signed "HC 31/40," Night Out is framed in a gold gilt wood and gesso frame with black trim with double matting and measures 30 1/4 inches tall by 26 1/2 wide.

Kiyomizu Temple in Snow

This Japanese woodblock print of Kiyomizu Temple in Snow was created by Sekino Jun'ichirō (1914–1988), one of the most influential Japanese printmakers of the 20th century. The signature in the lower right corner matches his characteristic Roman script signature and artist's seal. A leading artist in the sōsaku hanga ("Creative prints") movement, Sekino excelled in many techniques, working with intaglio media (etching, drypoint, aquatint, mezzotint, engraving), planar media (lithography), carved media (woodcuts, wood engravings), and mixed media (collagraph, found objects, textile printing), producing some of the finest portraits and figure studies in 20th-century Japanese art. He won acclaim in the United States following World War II, was brought here by the Japan-America Society in the 1950s, and taught briefly at Oregon State University. Upon returning to Japan, he assumed a position at Kobe University in 1965. Through his lifetime, he earned many international art awards, and his work has been bought by New York's Museum of Modern Art. Framed, the print measures 26.5 x 21 inches.

Handmade Quilt

This 90 x 90-inch quilt was just stitched last year, pieced by Susanne of Steffka's Studio in the Florida Keys and quilted by Carol of Coziness Quilts in Coral Springs. Quilts, both beautiful and practical, have quietly woven themselves into the backbone of our existence and provide homely, comforting warmth, both in appearance and in reality. The many intricate styles, fabrics and patterns like the lovely blue stars seen here are also part of a wonderfully rich and complex history, telling powerful stories about rites of passage and community.

Crane Tureen, an African Ceramic from Pascoe Gallery

This extraordinary one-of-a-kind tureen is a masterwork of South African ceramic artistry, hand-sculpted and painted with exceptional care and cultural significance. In African folklore, cranes symbolize royalty, grace, bravery, and good fortune, appearing in myths as heroes and inspiring cultural art. The gray crowned crane signifies wealth and longevity. Each delicate feather is meticulously rendered as the bird rests delicately atop a textured stylized base that further celebrates this magnificent creature. Crafted by a team of independent artists, this collectible brings awareness to one of Africa's most endangered and beloved creatures while showcasing the hand-crafted beauty of South African ceramic traditions. Perfect for collectors of rare art who value conservation stories, the tureen stands 12 inches tall and measures 10 inches from side to side.

Glass Sculpture in Purple, Blue, and Turquoise

Artist Ryan Blythe, an Ohio native who graduated from high school in eastern Pennsylvania, got bit by the glass-blowing bug while in college at Rochester Institute of Technology and has been going strong ever since. After college, he found a position working with Dale Chihuly, then moved to Italy for a year to study with some of that country's glass masters. He has been in the Seattle area for most of his career, and in recent years has worked from the cozy confines of his Vashon Island studio on a collaboration with Tiffany & Co. to create pieces that meld Tiffany tradition with his own unique style. He considers himself a storyteller and loves when clients bring their story to his work. You've Got a Friend: The Music of Carole, Joni, and James.

The year: 1971. The place: Los Angeles' A+M Records. An up-and-coming singer-songwriter is hard at work on her second studio album. She is visited by her friend and collaborator, who wants to introduce his new girlfriend, recording in the studio next door. The singer-songwriter? Carole King. The album? The genre-defining, 14x Platinum-selling masterpiece Tapestry. Her friend? James Taylor, fresh off his hit Sweet Baby James. And the girlfriend recording next door? Joni Mitchell, herself hard at work on her acclaimed classic, Blue. The music they each created would become the soundtrack of a generation. You and your guest can choose whether you'd like early cocktails, dinner, and performance (beginning at 5 p.m.), or all three later (beginning at 7:30 p.m.),

KC and the Sunshine Band, an Outdoor Concert

Saturday, March 21, 8 p.m.

Here's your opportunity for the two of you to enjoy complimentary cocktails and "Get Down Tonight" with KC and the Sunshine Band as this year they celebrate 50 years of entertaining us, writing songs and performing all around the world with no intention of stopping. Still as widely popular as when Harry Wayne Casey – KC for short – first developed a unique fusion of R&B and funk, with a touch of Latin percussion groove, they have delivered an impressive string of hits including the aforementioned "Get Down Tonight," plus "That's the Way (I Like It)," and "Shake Your Booty." With sales of over 100 million records, nine Grammy nominations, three Grammy Awards, and an American Music Award, as one of the most progressive bands of the 70s, the band is credited with changing the sound of modern pop music. They continue to perform over 100 live shows annually, circling the country and playing dates regularly throughout Europe, Australia, and South America.

The Simon & Garfunkel Story

Saturday, March 28, 8 p.m.

After enjoying a dinner at the Cultural Center prior to the live performance, the two of you will be transported down memory lane as you take in the Simon & Garfunkel Story starting with the duo's humble beginnings as Tom & Jerry, then on to their incredible success as one of the best-selling music groups of the '60s, and then their dramatic split in 1970. It culminates with the pair's famous "The Concert in Central Park" reunion in 1981, attended by more than half a million fans. Containing a set list of nearly 30 songs, the show features state-of-the-art video projection, photos, and original film footage. A full live band will perform hits including "Mrs. Robinson," "Cecilia," "Bridge Over Troubled Water," "Homeward Bound," and many more, complete with unmistakably perfect harmonies.

Isaiah 43:2 ... "I will be with you"

Beneath the surface of deep waters, Christ stands unwavering, His arms lifted toward the light that reaches Him from above. Rendered in layered acrylic, this painting by Michelle Reeder reflects the promise expressed in Isaiah 43:2, "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you," offering a vision of hope, endurance, and divine presence. Subtly inspired by Christ of the Abyss, this work invites the viewer to trust that even in life's deepest currents, light remains near and faith is not overcome. Unframed, the piece measures 30 inches wide by 48 tall.

The Apex - 100 Acre & Fortunate Son Rare Large Format Showcase

This remarkable auction lot brings together a lineup few collectors will ever see assembled, featuring some of Napa Valley's most elusive cult Cabernets—many in commanding large formats that are rarely, if ever, released. At its core is 100 Acre "Ark" Cabernet Sauvignon 2022, presented in both magnum (1.5L) and double magnum (3L), a 100-point wine that stands among the most celebrated Cabernet Sauvignons of the vintage and is produced in quantities so small it remains effectively absent from the broader wine market. Adding further prestige is 100 Acre "Wraith" Cabernet Sauvignon 2019, offered as a three-bottle case (750 ml), a strictly allocated bottling revered for its intensity and precision and seldom encountered outside long-held private collections. Completing the set is Fortunate Son "Visionary" Cabernet Sauvignon 2021 in double magnum (3L), a dramatic large-format centerpiece that underscores both power and long-term aging potential. United as a single lot, these wines represent the pinnacle of modern Napa Valley collecting, where rarity, scale, and pedigree converge—an exceptional opportunity for the serious collector and a true showpiece destined to be remembered.

Elegance... Enlarged - 1 Post Magnum and Vineyard Experience for Four

In 1997, Charlie Crocker and Pam

Starr established Crocker & Starr, resurrecting a vineyard with roots going back to the 1870s on the Crocker Estate in St. Helena. Their goal was to create world-class wines, and with Charlie's 100-acre estate vineyard on farmland that has grown grapes for over 140 years and Pam's wine-making expertise, vision and business acumen, the partners proved to be a spectacular match. Charlie Crocker and Pam Starr are growing and crafting some of the best wines in appellation Saint Helena and Napa Valley. Produced in extremely limited quantities, this 2022 "1 Post" Cabernet Sauvignon Magnum is bold, concentrated, and distinctly Napa Valley. Aromas of black cherry, cassis, dark chocolate, and oak spice lead into a dense, full-bodied palate with powerful structure and impressive intensity. Current Release Experiences at the estate are exclusively by appointment only, and this package for four includes an exclusive Elevated Current Release Experience. This will begin with a short tour of the vineyard, after which you'll be seated under their beautiful garden arbor where your host will share the duo's acclaimed wines paired with a specially prepared cheese and charcuterie platter as you enjoy sweeping views of the organically farmed vines.

Airfare and accommodations not included; date to be mutually agreed; expires January, 2027.

Friends & Family Fun

Firefighter Experience – An Unforgettable Morning for up to 8 People

Get ready for an unforgettable, behind-the-scenes adventure with ORCA's Fire Medic team! This private experience for up to eight guests offers an exciting, hands-on look at real firefighter life. Enjoy a guided firehouse tour, learn how crews prepare for emergencies, and get an insider's introduction to fire safety and emergency response. Suit up in real turnout gear, explore the station's impressive apparatus, and handle authentic firefighting tools. Then take the thrill up a notch with a ride on a fire engine followed by an exclusive trip aboard the fire boat for a rare view of marine response operations. Your morning wraps with a supervised, scaled-down fit test, giving participants a safe taste of the physical challenges firefighters face every day. Perfect for families, adventurous adults, or groups seeking a unique Ocean Reef experience, this 3.5-hour immersive program delivers education, excitement, and memories that last a lifetime.

Date to be mutually agreed.

Junior Firefighter Experience – A Morning of Fun, Learning & Adventure!

For 6 to 8

People, Suitable for children ages 7 and up

Give your young heroes an unforgettable chance to step into the world of real firefighters! This exciting, hands-on program begins at 9:00 AM and offers kids a morning filled with adventure, teamwork, and behind-the-scenes discovery for 6 to 8 people. Participants will enjoy a guided firehouse tour, meet the on-duty crew, and explore real firefighting gear – helmets, jackets, gloves, and more. They'll get an up-close look at the fire engine and rescue truck, learn how equipment works, and even take a supervised ride on the fire engine. Kids will then take on the Junior Firefighter Challenge, a fun, age-appropriate obstacle course with hose carries, tunnel crawls, water-target spraying, and relay activities designed to build confidence and teamwork. The experience concludes with a kid-friendly fire-safety talk, a special Honorary Junior Firefighter certificate, and a casual lunch with the crew – the perfect chance for photos, questions, and unforgettable memories. Ideal for curious and active kids ages 7 and up, this 3.5-hour immersive program one-of-a-kind morning delivers the thrill of firefighter life in a safe, inspiring, and truly memorable way.

Date to be mutually agreed.

New Padel Court Party for up to Eight

Here's your chance to learn more about Padel, the fast-growing racket sport that blends elements of tennis and squash, and have a fun time doing so. Played in doubles on an enclosed court about one-third the size of a tennis court, with walls that can be used for play, players use solid, stringless paddles and a low-compression ball, serving underhand and allowing shots to bounce off the glass walls. It's a strategic game accessible for various skill levels, known for being a great social experience and easy to learn. As skills improve, the strategy gets tougher, and the game at its highest level is often compared to chess. This fun-filled event, on our new court, located adjacent to Town Hall Water-side, includes two hours on court, a pro, instruction, and what promises to be a lot of fun. Up to eight people are welcome to join, as we learn the ins and outs of the new up and coming paddle sport. Players will rotate through, with four on the court at once. Drinks, snacks, music, and laughs provided, along with powerful serves and aces.

Expires April 30, 2026.

Dolphin Splash for Four

Be prepared to laugh, get splashed, and have a ton of fun while you, a trainer, and your new dolphin friend play a variety of games. As you stand on a submerged platform in waist-deep water, you will interact with "your" dolphin (participants do not go into deep water during this 20-25 minute program). This is a great experience for all ages! A participating adult (18 or older) can hold one child (up to 3 years old) for no additional cost. Children ages 4 to 7 must be accompanied by a participating adult. While pregnant women cannot take part (for safety and liability reasons), accommodations may be made for those with disabilities. You may bring a waterproof camera if it floats and is attached to you. Because staff photographer availability is limited, you may have a friend take photos or videos, but anyone coming to observe will need to purchase General Admission.

Please note: Wetsuits are recommended when the water temperature falls below 68 degrees. While Dolphin Research Center does not have wetsuits available, participants can rent them from local dive shops. No pets are allowed on boardwalks, floating docks, in the water, or to attend or participate in the Dolphin Splash program. If you bring a pet, please arrange for someone to attend to the pet while your party takes part in the Splash.

Oh My Mahjong Lola Set: Tropical Theme

In recent years, the 19th century game of mahjong has become the new ritual for a gathering that doesn't revolve around loud bars or bottomless brunch: part strategy, part therapy, part laughter echoing over clacking tiles. It allows for connection with intention: no screens, no distractions, just good company and beautiful tiles, and the game is tactile and rhythmic – the sound of the tiles and laughter fills quiet spaces. If your friends are new to the game, watch a short tutorial together and walk through a practice round to take the pressure off (you'll find laughing through mistakes is half the fun). Once everyone gets into the rhythm of drawing, discarding, and calling "Mahjong!", the competition comes naturally. You may soon have a favorite character, the Joker, Lola. Representing the ultimate woman matriarch and boss, Lola embodies strength and power, and adds a special flair to every game. Set includes tiles, tile storage bag, four acrylic tile racks, travel rack bag, mat, a dice pouch, ten plastic mahjong cups, a copy of "Grandma Dottie's Dots," a tale of love, laughter, and tiles by Ocean Reef members Gabby and Mark Spatt, and, to hold everything, a green and white canvas travel bag.
